1 Sanballat practiseth to terrify Nehemiah.
15 The work is finished. 17 Secret intelligence between the enemies and the nobles of Judak

TOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Gesham the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates ;)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of One. But they thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand:

6 Wherein was written. It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a to the king according to these words. Come now, therefore, and let us take counsel to-

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thise own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, genealogy. And I found a register of the gethat it be not done. Now therafore, Q Ged, neelegy of them which came up at the first, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaish the son of Delaish the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said. Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to alay

11 And I said, Should such a man as I fice? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our

God. 17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworm unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobish sent letters to put me in fear. CHAP. VII.

Il And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou leddest them in the day of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. 13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest om right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy subbath, and commandedst them precepts, sta tutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servánt: 15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments

20 Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to in-struct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain thera in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing : their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners : so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heebbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. 23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou harbt promised to their fathers, that they should in to posseas ii. 24 So the children went in and resessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Camanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods. wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness

26 Nevertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee. and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven: and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. 28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven, and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies: 29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them.) and withdrew the shoulder, and bard-

ened their neck, and would not hear. 30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets; yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sakethou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant, and mercy, let not all the trou-ble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, en our kings, on our princes, and of the cloud departed not from them by day, to on our priests, and on our prophets, and lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire on our fathers, and on all thy people, since by night, to show them light, and the way the time of the kings of Assyris unto this day.

against them. 35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and is thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the lrings whom it.ou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure,

8 T So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegal, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her. out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

WHEN Mordecal perceived all that was done, Mordecal rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a. bitter cry;

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his band. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

his friends, and Zerosh his wife. 11 And Haman told them of the glory of his. riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. 12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow am I invited unto her

If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the hing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them;

for the fear of them fell upon all people. 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers

4 For Mordecal mas great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Loan, and his strength, and his woulerful works that he hath dene.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their just.

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said,
Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overslowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? 21 Therefore the Loan heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; 22 Because they believed not in God, and

PSALM XC

1 Moses, setting forth God's frovidence, 3 complaineth of human frailty, 7 divine chastisements, 10 and brevily of life: 12 he prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence.

¶ A Prayer of Moses the man of God. ORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations. 2 Before the mountains were brought forth. or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. 3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood;

It is a sleep: in the morning they are liver him, and honour him.

It with long life will I satisfy him, and shewlike grass which groweth up.
6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. 7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore rears and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger?

Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. 12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O Loan, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants. 14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the Loap our God hands upon us; yes, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Vapity of vanities; all is vapity.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth nown, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full : unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot patter if : the eye is not satisfied with seaing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, ir that which hall be denot and there is no new thing under

3 I sought in mine beart to give myself unto wine, (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded the 5 I made me rardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me pools of water to water there with the wood that bringeth forth trees; 7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servante bare in my house; also I had great possessiops of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me; 8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar tressure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great and increased more than all that were before me in Jerumlem: also my wisdom remained with me. 10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept sot from them: I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do : and behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. 13 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wiedom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which 18 I said in mine heart converning the estate f the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of me befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other: rea, they have all one breath; so that a man ath no pre-eminence above a beast : for all is

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh's blasphemous persuasions to the people: 22 his words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherih, king of Assyria, came up against all the de-fenced cities of Judah, and took them. 2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hil-

Shebna the scribe, and Josh, Asaph's son, the recorder. 4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezeklah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Amyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now, on whom dost theu trust, that thou reballest against me !

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Phazaoh king of Egypt to all that trust is him.

7 But If thou say to me, We trust in the Loan our God: is is not he, whose high places and whose aitars Hezekiah hath take away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem. Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chari-ets and for horsemen?

10 And am I now-come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it! The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliskim and Shebus and Joan unto Rabshaken, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it; and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabsbakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may est their own dung, and drink their own piss with you ? 13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. 14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deli-

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebua the scribe, and J at, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezelish with their clothes rest. and told him the words of Rabshakeh. CHAP. XXXVII.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 T So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from lachish.

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ. 9 Christ defendeth ham, sw to have his people from fear.

FIEARKEN to me, ye that follow after richteousness, ye that seek the Long: look teousness, ye that seek the Long: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarsh that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the Loan shall comfort Zion : he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lonn; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 T Hearies unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my metion: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the 5 My righteourness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the beavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like amoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manher : but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 T Hearken unto me, ye that know righ-teousness, the people is whose heart is my law; feir ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revillings. 8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall cut them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lond; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which bath dried the sca, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the see a way for the ran-somed to pass over ?

Il Therefore the redeemed of the Lond shall return, and come with singing unto Zion : and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who are thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13 And forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he ware ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the Lorp thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared; The Loan of bosts is his name.

16 And I have put my words in thy mouth. and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the beavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom sue hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the some that she hath brought up.

19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee! desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword :

by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net : they are full of the fury of the Loan, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine :

22 Thus saith thy Lord the Lord, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his peo-ple, Behold, I have taken out of thise hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over. CHAP. LII.

WAKE, awake; put on thy strength, O A Zion; put on thy beautiful germents, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

was despised, and we esteemed him not.

19 ¶ My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peare, because thou hast heard. O my soul, the sound of the trum-pet, the slarm of war.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled : suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

31 How long shall I see the standard, as hear the sound of the trumpet ?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding : they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and lo. it was with-a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lozo, and by his fierce anger. 27 For thus bath the Loan said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. 28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black : because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

20 The whole city shall fice for the poise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks : ever city shall be formaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And miss thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do! Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life. 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travall, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zien, that bewalleth berself, that presedeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now ! for my soul is weerled because of mur-

The enemies sent against Judah, 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins.

O'YE children of Benjamin, gather your-selves to fice out of the midst of Jerusahosts, Because ye speak this word, Behold, lem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and I will make my words in thy mouth fire, set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem : for struction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about ; they shall feed every one in his place. 4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at nosa. Wo uste us! for the day

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces

9 Thus saith the Lond of heats, They shall throughly glean the remnant of luvel as a vice; turn beck thine hand as a grapegatherer into the bankets. 10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear te uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken:

behold, the word of the Lora is unto them a represent; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the Loan; I am weary with holding in: I will pome it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be mken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the lubabitants of the land, saith the Load. 13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination! Nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blueb : therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lonn. 16 Thus saith the Loud, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said. We will not hearken.

18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

22 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear : they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roureth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as man for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have beard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble : anguish bath taken hold of us, sad pain, as of a woman in travail. 25 Go sot forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear ir on every side.

26 T O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyrelf in makes; make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that then mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. 29 The hallows are burned, the lead is consimed of the fire; the founder melteth in voin: for the wicked are not plucked away. (ii) Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Long hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII. 1 Jeremiak is sent to call for true repentance 8 he rejecteth their vain confidence.

Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lozp, the temple of the Lozp, the temple of the Loan, are these

20 Therefore thus suith the Lord Gon; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be pourled out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon sun, and the moon, and all the host of heathe fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the Loan of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your hurnt-offerings unto your acrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, say ing. Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they bearkened not, nor inclined their car, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. 25 Since the day that your fathers came furth out of the land of Egypt, unto this day, I have even sent unto you all my ser-vanta the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them :

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck :

7 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but the Lord, and put of on my loins.

3 And the word of the Lord came unto me

the second time, saying, 4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as the Lord communications.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the Lorn said unto me, Arme, go to Euphra-tes, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the Loan came unto me,

9 Thus saith the Loan, After this manner will I man the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the Lord God of Isreel. Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wise ?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them. Thus aith the Lorp, Behold, I will fill all the phabitants of this hand, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. 14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Loap's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

What will thou say when he shall punish thee! (For thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee:) Shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail ?

22 T And if thou say in thine heart. Where-fore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. 23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderzess.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Loan; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsebood.

20 Therefore will I discover thy skirts une thy face, that thy shame may appear.

make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the Loro had sent him to prophery; and e stood in the court of the Load's house; and said to all the people.

15 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of israel; Rehold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

I An exhortation to repentance. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 20 Of Coniah.

THUS with the Lozp; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, 2 And say, Hear the word of the Loun, 0 king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates: 3 Thus saith the Load; Execute ye judg-i

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kines sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these werds, I swear by myself, saith the Lozu, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the Loan unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons : and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pers by this city, and they shall say every man to his neign-bour, Wherefore hath the Lond done thus unto this great city ?

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed inpocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered Rock. 9 Against false prophets. WO be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lond.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israci against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Loau.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and in-CITERIO.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be

11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my bouse have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. 12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring avil upon them, even the year of their visita-tion, saith the Load. 13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. 14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem as horrible thing : they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me es Sadom, and the inhabitants thereof as Go-merrab. 15 Therefore thus saith the Loud of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. 16 Thus saith the Lond of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Loud.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD bath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart. No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the Loan, and hath perceived and heard his word? Who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the Loan is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: is the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the Loan, and not a God afar off ?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the MORD. De not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lorp.

And the burden of the Loan shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the Long of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What bath the Loan answered thee ! and, What hath the Loan spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LOAD; therefore thus saith the LOAD; Be cause ye say this word. The burden of the Lorp, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye out of my presence:

upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten. CHAP. XXIV.

1 By good and bad figs, 4 he foreshereth the restoration from captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE Long shewed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the Lond, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeco-mish the son of Jehoiskim king of Judah, and

2 One basket had very good figs, even like thou, Jeremiah! And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil; that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 T Again the word of the Loan came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the Loan, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. 7 And I will give them so heart to know me, that I am the Lorn; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. 8 % And as the evil figs, which cannot be Ty table creems, such the Lord, and to ten by their eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the lies, and cause my people to err by their eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them Lond, So will I give Zedekish the king of Junot, nor commanded them: therefore they dah, and his princes, and the residue of Jeru-

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon : 2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the is-habitants of Jerusalem, saying, 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Long bath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the Lord bath sent unte you all his servants the prophets, rising early and send-ing them; but ye have not bearkened, nor la-ever and ever : 6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the princes of Judals, with the carpenters and the Loan; that ye might provoke me to assmiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them ger with the works of your hands to your own to Babylon.

N the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the Loan, mying,

2 Thus swith the Load to me; Make thes bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck, 3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the Loap of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. 6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Baby lon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the ma-tion and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuckadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that ne-

tion will I punish, salth the Loan, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until 1 have consumed them by bis band.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon :

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to re move you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perisb.

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon : for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the Loan, yet they prophesy a lie in my name, that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto 16 T Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the Loan; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophets unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the Loan's house shall now stortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste !

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the Loan be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the Lond, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 T For thus saith the Long of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea. and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that ramain in this could affect, concerning the vessels time re-main is the house of the Loux, and as the house of the king of Jushah and of Jerusalem; 22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I will them, saith the Loux; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

1 Hanantah's fulse prophecy: 10 he breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah foretelleth of en iron yoke, 15 and Hananiah's death.

ND it came to pass the same year, in the last beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king I de Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month. that Hananiah the non of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the Loan, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying, the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again from Jerusalem to Babylon. into this place all the vessels of the Lord's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon queen, and the sunuchs, the princes of Judah took away from this place, and carried them to an' Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the Babylon: smiths, were departed from Jerusalem.) 7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the cars of all the people;

Loan hath truly sent him.

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

Il And Hanamiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying. Thus saith the Loan; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying. Thus saith the Loan; Thou bast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of 14 For thus saith the Loap of hosts, the God of largel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him; and I Zwe given him the beasts of the field also.

15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The Lord hath no sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the Loan: Behold. I will cast thee from off the face of the earth : this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rehellion against the Loan.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh mouth.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah's imprisonment: 16 his complaint to God. 28 The captivity confirmed. 36 A promise of a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Loan in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of

Nebuchadrezzar. 2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jarusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophery, and say, Thus saith the Loan, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it : 4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babrica, and there shall be be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye

8 So Hanameet mine uncle's son came to venant that I will me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the Load.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed at, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the ed out drink-offering son of Masseiah, in the sight of Hanameel provoke me to anger. mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 T And I charged Baruch before them, saying, 14 Thus saith the Loan of hosts, the God 14 Thus saith the Loan of hosts, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, 1 prayed unto the Loan, saying, 17 Ah Lord Gon! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too bard for thee:

18 Thou shewest loving kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the Load of hosts, is his name,

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men : to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day;

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;
22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey:

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commanded them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, good, and I will reloice over them to do them and of the pestilence: and what thou hast sweedly with my whole heart, and with my spoken is come to yess: and behold, thou whole soul mest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the Long unto Jeremialı, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh : is there any thing too hard for me ! 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Be-bold, I will give this city into the band of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to agger with the work of their hands, saith the Loan. 31 For this city hath been to me as a pro-vocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the chudren of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face : though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to de-die it.

35 And they built the high places of Banl, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I com-manded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination to cause Judah to sin.

36 T And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwall safely : 28 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

42 For thus saith the Loan , Like as I have thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Loze; people. and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the Loan, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 T I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus: Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even con-founded, because I did hear the reproach of my youth.

30 Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a pleasant calld's For cince I spake against him I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Jeremiah's imprisonment: 18 his complaint premise of a gractous return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Loan is the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Loap, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall pot escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall be be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

of silver. 10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed at, and took witnessed, and weighed Afm

the money in the balances. 11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the 15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 T Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the Loan, saying, 17 Ah Lord Gon! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:

Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed u, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Masseiah, in the sight of Hammeel mine uncle's ton, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 T And I charged Baruch before them,

saying, 14 Thus saith the Loap of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Loan of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be pessessed again in this land.

16 % Now when I had delivered the evi-

8 This is the word that came unto Jereminh from the LOAD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to will, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered late the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

Il But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaide.

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Load, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jazzaniah the sen of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his soms, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maassiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door :

5 And I set before the some of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in? neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:
10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Kebuchadrez-zar king of Babylon came up into the land, every one to his brother, and every man to that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusa-his neighbour: behald, I proclaim a liberty lem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so pestilence, and to the famine : and I will make we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the Loap unto Jeremiah, saying, saith the Loan.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Reclose, that he commanded his sons not to drink: wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's command-ment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking: but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwall in the land which I have given a you chamber of Gemarish the som of Shaphan the and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined scribe in the higher court, at the entry of the your ear, sor hearkened unto me.

ND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jeholakim the son of Josiah king of Juish, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against israel, and against Judab, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them: that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive heir iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the Loan, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying. I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the Loan:

8 And Baruch the son of Nerish did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the Load in the Load's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiskim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the Loup to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah, unto Jerusalem

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Loxo, in the all the words of the Lond,

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the sen of Netharish, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now and read it in our cars. So Beruch read it in their ears. 16 Now it came to pass, when they had beard all the words, they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch, we will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they saked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didnt thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jerominh; and let so man

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they leid up the roll in the chamber of Elishams the scribe, and told all the words in the care of the king, 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the cars of the king, and in the cars of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house in the nigth month: and there was a fire on in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet then were not afraid, nor rent the hr

Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not bear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seralah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the Loan hid them.

27 Then the word of the Load came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah bath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jeholakim king of Judah, Thus saith the Loze; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence men and beast ?

30 Therefore thus saith the Lond of Jehoiskim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body all be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the front

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have procounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriab; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jereminh all the words of the book which Jeho-iakies king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

1 The Egyptians having raised the Chaldeans' siege, Zedekink sendeth to Jeremiah : 6 mho prophreieth the Chaldrane' return and victory: Il he is bouten, and put in prison.

ND king Zedexiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the Loan, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Massoiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah,

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then came the word of the Loan unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the Loan, the God of Israel; 7 Thus saith the Loan, the God of Israel;
Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that in this city shall die by the sword, by the fasent you usto me to finquier of me; Bebold, mine, and by the pestilence: but the that go-Pharach's army, which is some forth to help oth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fre.

9 Thus saith the Loan; Deceive not yourselves, saying. The Chaldeans shall surely ce-part from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire

11 T And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaob's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. 13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hammish; and he took Jeremish the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah. It is false; I fail not away to the Chaldeans. But he heartened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in pri-son in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out : and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there say word from the Loan! And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Bubyion shall not come against you, nor against this land ?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the baker's street, until all the bread in the city were spent. saying, Pray now unto the Loan our God Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the tuen of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the live. hurt. 5 Then Zer'ekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can on any thing against you. 6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are in the dungeon there nas no water, but mire: turned away back.

so Jeremian sunk in the mire. 7 T Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the cunuchs which was in the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, 9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have east into the dungeon: and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopius, saying, Take from hence thirty mon with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Elied-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts, and and rollen rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ubed-inclech the Ethiopian said upto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drow up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremian remained in the court of the prison.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, &c.

EDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Liboah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the Load, according to all that Jeholakim had done 3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Ze-deklah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 T And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fied, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. 8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedeklah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army-was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamsth; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Ribiah.

If Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death. 12 T Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which war the nineteeath year of Nebuchadvezzar king of Babylon, came Neburar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusa-

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of light-wheels.

21 When those went, there went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth

23 And under the firmament mere their wings straight, the one toward the other : every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech as the poise of an host; when they stood they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmsment that mas over their heads, when they

28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the ap-pearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Loan. And when I saw if, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

39 As for you, O bouse of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve we every one his idols, and hereafter also, if we will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord Gop, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land; serve me: there will fe-accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet myour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the beather.

42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country or the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your trespars against me.

45 T Moreover, the word of the Lond came unto me, saying,

CHAP. XXI. Esskiel prophesieth against Jermalen. 8 The sharp and bright sword.

A ND the word of the Loan came unto me, saying.

2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusa-lem, and drop sky word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of large!

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Loan; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against ali esh from the south to the north :

5 That all flesh may know that I the Lorn have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath:

it shall not return any more.

7 And it shall be, When they say unto thee,
Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shall enswer, For the tidings' because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord Gop.

8 ¶ Again the word of the Long came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Loan; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharposed to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? It contempets the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath gives it to be furbished, that it may be handled; the sword is sharpened. and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the prin-ces of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people : smite therefore upon thy thigh.

15 I have set the point of the sword s-slaughter. 16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever the face is set

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest : I the LORD have sald ff.

18 The word of the Lorn came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee twe ways, that the sword of the king of Babylos may come; both twain shall come forth out of one land : and choose thou a place, choose # at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways to use divination: he made air arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the distinction for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint beffering rams against the gates, to cast a mount and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the injusty, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord Goes:

Because ye have made your iniquity to be reaking of thy loins, and with bitterness sigh remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, profane wicked prince of lerael, whose day is come when iniquity shall have an end,

26 Thus saith the Lord Gon; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same : exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. 27 I will overture, overture, everture it :

and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it Aim.

28 % And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord Gop concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach, even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn : for the slaughter if is furbished, to consume because of the glittering :

29 While they see vanity unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have so ead.

30 Shall I cause & to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy sativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thes in the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. 32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land, thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Loan have spoken #. CHAP. XXII. I'A catalogue of sine in Jerusalem. 17 will burn them as drave in his furnace.

MOREOVER, the word of the LOAD came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wift thou judge the bloody city? Yea, thou shalt show her all her shominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GoD; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it-that her time may come, and maketh idols against berself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idole which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and are come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a monking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee which art infamous and much vexed. 6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and saith the Lord Gop.

13 T Behold, therefore I have smitten mise hand at they dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken if, and will

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy fithiness out of thee. 16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in Shyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the Loan.

17 ¶ And the word of the Loap came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tim, and fron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus with the Lord Gop . Be-fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the fore I will rather you into the midst of Jeruseiem 20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. 21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall we be melted in the midstr thereof; and ye shall know that I the Loan have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Loan came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her. Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor raised upon in the day of indignation 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring ilon ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. 26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the boly and pro-iane, neither have they shewed difference be-tween the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my subbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.
28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord Gop, when the Lord buth not stroy it; but I found none. 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have 36 The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, with theu judge Aholah and Aholibah? Yea, declare unto them their abominations, me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and sat him for their watchman :

10 Thus saith the Lord Gop; Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepberds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 T For thus saith the Lord Gon; Behold I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

Behold, O snount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and will make thee most desolate. 4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord. 5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Is-

8 And I will fill his mountains with his stain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword. 9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and we shall know that I am the Load. 10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the Load was there:

I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which then hast used make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord Gon; Surely in the fire of my josiousy have I spo-kes against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast 並 out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord Gon; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, be-cause ye have borne the shame of the beathen: 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord Gon; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

the open valley; and lo, they were very dry. 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Gon, thou knowest. 4. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them. O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Loan. 5 Thus saith the Lord Gop unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: 6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Loap. 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. 9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the great army.

O my people, and brought you up out of your graves.

1 The time, manner, and end of Exektel's vision. 33 Eight tables, 44 the chambers, 48 the porch of the house.

N the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visious of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, Lord Gon; Speak unto every feathered fowl, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured be the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side : and the little chambers mere six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits. even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner

16 And there were parrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and lo, there were thambers, and a pavement made for the court round about; thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the breadth from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court, that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. 21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate ezek lel of the tempte.

gate that looketh toward the east; and they fices. went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. 23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 T After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south:

and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and of the temple.

FTERWARD he brought me to the tem-A ple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on tabernacle 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereo; forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. 3 Then went be inward, and measured the post of the door (we cubits ; and the door six enhits; and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty the other side, which was the breadth of the cubits; and the breadth twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place. 5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall, which n is of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. 7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chamber : | doors of the temple, cherubins and palufor the winding about of the house went still spward round about the house : therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the ghest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door to-ward the north, and another door toward the south : and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an bundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court:

16 The door-posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were from the outer court. covered:

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees male, and on the wall of the temple.

The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the boly.

THEN he brought me forth into the outer L court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was be-

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, wasgallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit;

and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground-7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the outer court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty tubits: and lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits 9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them 10 The chambers were in the thickness of 17 To that above the door, even unto the the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said be unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be hely chambers, where the priests that approach unto the Loap shall eat the most hely things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-oliering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is

And the glory of the Loan came into the house by the way of the gate whose pros-

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the Lore filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house : and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have con-

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babyles: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their babitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong : for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an boly one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him:
24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king :

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to est grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever be will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree-roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break of thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 T Ali this came upon the king Nebuchadaezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake and said, Is not this great Bahylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the he nour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying. O king Netuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee,

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling stall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to cat grass as exen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoover he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto beaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and bonoured him that liveth for ever, whose do- the days of thy father light and understand.

Relshazzar's impious feast: 5 a hand writing troubleth him: 17 Daniel reproveth him, 25 and interpreteth the writing.

DELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lurds, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 % In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candiestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astro-logers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was chauged in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 ¶ Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake, and said, O king, live for ever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: 11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in ing and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers:

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation. 13 Then was Daniel brought in before the And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Julah, whom the king

my father brought out of Jewry ? 14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though shou knewest all

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him, and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God bath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 T In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault : forasmuch as he was faithful. neither was there any error or fault found in

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whoseever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the wriing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber to-ward Jerusalam, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lious? The king answered and said. The thing is true, ac-parits, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persians, CHAP. VII. which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but unketh his petition three times a day

14 Then the king, when he heard there words, was sore displeased with himself, and at his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king. and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is. That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast Man into the den of Hous. Now the king spake and said unto Da-Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two borns; and the two borns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts

5 And as I was considering, behold, an the goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns : and there was no power in the rain to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his band.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great. toward the south, and toward the east, and

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm: neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her a

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

The GOSPEL according to ST. MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogy of Christ: 18 his conception and birth: 21, 23 his names, with their interpretation.

THE book of the generation of Jesus took unto him his wife: Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. 2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Juda and his brethren:

Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom bega: Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed hegat Jesse; 6 And Jesse begat David the king; and Da-vid the king begat Solomon of her that had been the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, the mife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; 9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

II And Josias begat Jechonias and h. bre-Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet, thren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat rule my people Israel. Zorobabel:

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat

Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from Daviduntil the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

with exceeding great joy.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jo-baptism. 7 The fruits of repentance. Christ baplized by John in Jordan. N those days came John the Baptist, preach-honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all

Judea, and all the region round about Jordan. 6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, con-

We have Abraham to our father: for I say [lee: unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up chibiren unto Abraham.

Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: 17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying. This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IV. 1 Christ fasteth, is tempted, and overcometh: 17 beginneth to preach, and calleth some to be his disciples. THEN was Josus led up of the spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. 5 Then tue devil taketh him up into the sea: for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them. 22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. 25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan. CHAP. V.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The Apostles are the salt of the earth, and light of the world. A ND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mount in: and when he was sat, his disciples care unto him. 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them. saying, 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. 5 Blewed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after rightcousness: for they shall be filled. 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are ti - peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in beaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. 13 T Ye are the salt of the earth: but it the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but men. 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the bouse.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I am come to destrow the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heavern and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the la., till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteoneness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of beaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: 22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall-be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in dan-ger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee,

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and ro thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. 27 9 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time. Thou shalt not commat adultery: 28 But I say unto you; That whosoever looketh on a woman to just after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his beart. 29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck

it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish. and not that thy whole body should be cast into 30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast if from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said. Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That whosever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whoseever shall marry ber that is divorced. to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of committed adultery.

33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not for-swear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 But I say unto you, Sweer not at all. neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

14 For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they distigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you,

They have their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; 18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will our heart he also.

22 The light of the body is the eve : if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light:

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

any man hear his voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 T Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: 40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the carth. 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, a greater than Jonas is here. 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. 43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a seven other spirits more wicked than himself. and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard. 29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not. 31 Whether of them twain did the will of Air father! They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came unto you in the way of righteourness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain bouseholder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country: 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it 35 And the husbandmen took his sérvants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned apother.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they did unto them likewise.

'37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: 6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants. The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. 10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the weddiag was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-garment: 12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how cameet thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and grashing of teetb.

23 The same day came to him the Sad ees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, fraving no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 23 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the poner of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitude heard this, they

1 The destruction of the temple foretold.

Of Christ's coming to judgment.

ND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 T And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately. saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them.

Take heed that no man deceive you: 5 For many shall come in my name, saying,

I am Christ; and shall deceive many. 6 And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours

7 For nation shell rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestileness, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be af dicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many he offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved

*14 And this cospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all rations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whose readeth, let him understand, 16 Then let them which be in Judez flee into the mountains :

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes

19 And we unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days !

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day : 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be 22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no sesh be saved: But for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo. here is Christ, or there; believe if not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and wonders; insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

25 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: be hold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning compets out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens sball be sbaken :

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Fox of man in heaven: and then sha!! all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with nower and great glory.

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as we think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? 46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming:

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-serrants, and to cat and drink with the drunken; 50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of.

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lames.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and elect.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Bebold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wire answered, mying. Not so: that there be not enough for us and you : but yourselves. 10 And while they went to buy, the brideproom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say goods.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five : dents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five falen's came, and brought other five talents, saving, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 22 He also that had received two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them. 23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord 24 Then he which had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed:

hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

3 The rulers conspire against Christ: 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover. ND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, 2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to

Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Calaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus

by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there he an uproar among the people. 6 T Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house o Simon the lever.

7 There came unto him a women having an alabaster-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw il, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 220

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 When Jesus understood ff, he said unto them. Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

1) For ye have the poor always with you:

but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this cintment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you. Wheresoever this gospel shell be preached in the whole world, farre shall also this, that this woman hath donc, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas

Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.
17 % Now the first day of the feast of upleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him. The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had ap pointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. 21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray m 23 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and him, Thou hast said. 26 ¶ And as they were enting, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and hake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, est; this is my body.

abroad. 32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Dd3.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto: thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he urto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

33 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Pather, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. 40 And be cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? 41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them saleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same MOUZE

45 Then cometh he to his disciptes, and suith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rize, let us be going: behold, he in at hand that doth hetray me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, le, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

43 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kies, that same is ne; hold him fast.

43 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Mail, Master; and kiesed him.

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jeeus answering them, began to say.

Take heed lest any man deceive you: 6 For many shall come in my name, saying,

Lam Christ; and shall deceive many. 7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be mings of sorrows. 9 $ But take beed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be besten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. 10 And the gospei must first be published

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Chost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 T But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Judea fee to the mountains:

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said. Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on, all; and they glorified God, saying. That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

thou he that should come! or look we for 20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou be that should come! or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Ther Jesus answering, said unto them. Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the the deaf hear, the deaf are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. 23 And blessed is $6, whoseever shall not e offended in me.

24 7 And when the messengers of John were leparted, he began to speak unto the lears, and wiped them with the hairs of her people concerning John, What went ye out head. into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see! I prophet! Yea, I say unto you, and much mere than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 Fo. I say unto you. Among those that are bors of women, there is not a greater to say within themselves, Who is this thet prophet than John the Baptist: but he that (orgiveth size also)

Come, and he cometh; and to my servent, is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. 29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? 32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying. We have piped unto you, and re have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil. 34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! 35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 T And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisco's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment.

38 And stood at his feet behind him, weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39. Now when the Pharises, which had 19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art saying, This man, if he were a prophet, saying. This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

> 40 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to my unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors; the one owed five hundred pence. and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore which of them will love him most? 43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said-unto Simo, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet : but she hath washed my feet with 45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, bath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 Mine head with oil thou didst not anoint : but this woman bath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sine, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much; but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her. Thy size are foriven.

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. CHAP. VIII

1 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 28 The legion of devils cast out.

ND it came to pass afterward, that he him.

2 And certain women, which had been bealed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven 4evils,

3 And Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock : and as soon as It was sprung up it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorse sprang up withit, and choice it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold.
And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And hil diciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of Ged.

12 Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

T No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press

20 And it was told him by certain, which mid, Thy mother and thy brothren stand without, desiring to see thee. 21 And he answered and said unto them. My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 T Now it came to pass on a certain day, went throughout every city and village that he went into a ship with his disciple: preaching, and showing the glad tidings of the and he said unto them. Let us go over unto kingdom of God: and the twelve were with the other side of the lake. And they knowched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake: and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him. saying, Master, master, we perish. he arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thow Son of God most high! I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the uncleas spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. 31 And they be sought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them: 33 Then went the devils out of the man. and entered into the swine : and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fied, and went and told it in the city, and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man. out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in hispricht mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about, besought him to depart from them: for they were taken with great fear. And he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 New the man, out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him : but Jesus sont him away, mying,

39 Return to thine own house, and show how, great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of 44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood staunched.

45 And Jesus said. Who touched me? When all denied. Peter, and they that were with him, said. Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of 47 And when the woman saw that ! he was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediate-

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith bath made thee whole;

go in peace.
49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no map to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleep-

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise. 55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat. 58 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostler: 7 Herod is desirous to see him: 12 he feedelh five thou-

THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authosity over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he seat them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for our journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two the whole world, and loss himself, or be care oceta apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart. 5 And whoseever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against 6 And they departed, and went through the towrs, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 T Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Ellas had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was riven again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things?

And he desired to see him. 10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Beth-

11 And the people, when they knew ii, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And when the day began to wear away. then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals : for we are here in a desert place.

 But he said unto them, Give ye them to
 And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people: 14 (For they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company. 15 And they did so, and made them all sit down. 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets. 18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that 19 They answering, said, John the Baptist:

but some say, Elias; and others say, That one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am ! Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing.

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any ma will come after me, let him deny muself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For whoseever will save his life shall lose it: but whoseever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

26 For whosever shall be ashamed of me, ! and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own

27 But I tell you of a truth, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 7 And it came to pass, about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and Jehn, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And, as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

39 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias; 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him. were heavy with sleep; and when they were awake they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

23 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the aloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept if close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company, cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, leok upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foametrachin, and bruising him, bardly departeth from him.

40 And I becought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuled the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the flands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that say-

46 ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of house to house. their beart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever that receive this child in my name, receiveth ar and whosever shall receive me, receive's glory, and is his Father's, and of the holy him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master. we saw one casting out devils in thy name: and we forbed him because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said upto him. Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, se steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52 And sent messengers before his face : and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did '

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said. Ye know not what manner of spirit ve are of. 56. For the Son of man is not come to destroy me: ives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 T And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain mea said unto him Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever then

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 59 And he said unto another, Follow me But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kinguom of God. 61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee : but let me arst go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No men having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter. Arst my, Peace be to this bouse.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe oil against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. 12 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 We unto thee, Cherazin! we unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me. 17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan s lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you 20 Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. 21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of beaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prodent, and hast away from her. revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is but the Father: and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23- 7 And he turned him unto his disciples. and said privately. Blessed are the eyes which are the things that ye see:

25 T And Behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life!

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? How readest thou?

27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him. Theu hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus. And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus, answering, said, A certain mon went down from Jerusalem to Jerieho, and give thee.

priest that way; and when he saw him, he pass-ed by on the other side. 32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beart, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the bost, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves !

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. 38 T Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a rertain woman, named Martha, received him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister bath left me to serve alone! Bid her therefore that she belp me.

chosen that good part, which shall not be taken CHAP. XI.

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. 15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting Aim, sought of him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. 18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand! Because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub 19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by

Of the unjust steward. 14 The hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees reproved. 19 The 19 Tks rich glutton and Lazarus the beggar.

A ND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had warted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, that falleth to me. And he civided unto them How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself. What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do: that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 So he called every on of his lord's debt-ors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteouspess; that when ye fail, they may receive you into

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other;

or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 ¶ And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things; and they derided him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts; for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God. 16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbe which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

21 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me; and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in thi: flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed; so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said. I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

26 For 1 have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they bear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.

7 But which of you, having a servant plow-ing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit

Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lapers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said. Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the fine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole. 20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said. The kingdom of God cometh not with observation.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for behold, the kingdom of God is within you. 22 And he said unto his disciples. The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not CHAP. V. I Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth him that was discased eight and thirty years: 10 the Jews cavil, and persecute him for it.

A FTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheep-market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: who toever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him. Wilt thou be made whole

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. 10 T The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered tham. He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. 14 Afterwards Jesus Andeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 T But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, 20 For the Father leveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth: They that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of dampation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which bath sent me.

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which bath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Futher, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto yeu, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life. 49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wil-from beaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themelves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have 57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead. He that esteth of this bread he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard say-ing; who can hear it?

Doth this offend you? 62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betrav him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, That no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.
66 ¶ From that itsue many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

FTER these things Jesus walked in Gahiles: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacies was at hand 3 His brethren therefore said unto him,

Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. 4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if theu de these things, shew thyself to the world.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is 🛪 not yet come: but your time is always ready.
7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. 8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 T But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him; for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 T Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. 15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus answered them and said. My dog-trine is not mine, but his that sent me. 17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and be bath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this was hath that such should be stoned: but what myest done?

32 The Pharisess heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves.

Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will be go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles !

36 What manner of saying in this that he said, Ye shall seak me, and shall not find me?

and, Where I am, thilder ye cannot come? 37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive : for the Holy Ghast was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) 40 ¶ Many of the people, therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the 21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go ye cannot come:

23 And he said unto them. Ye are from be-

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that ath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a tiar, and the father of it.

was a division among them. 17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of Mm, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been hind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself: I have power to key it down, and I have power to take it again. This comand I have power to take it again. This mandment have I received of my Father. 19 There was a division therefore again

9 Jesus answered. Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

him, for that they heard that he had done! this miracle.

19 The Phariseas therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail no-thing! behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, rhich was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and deaired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh, and telleth Andrew; and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth mouch fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it: and be that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say ? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then care there a voice from heaven, saving, I have both glorified ii, and will glorify ii again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and beard it, said that it thundered; others said.

An angel spake to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me 33 (This he said, signifying what death he self.

should die.) 34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for eyer: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that we may be the children of light. The e things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on head.

38 That the saying of Essias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom bath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

29 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esains said arrin.

al These things said Brains, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers the Pharisees they shi not confess him, lest by should do as I have given you an example, that they should be rut out the spaceogue:

45 And be that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in durkness 47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a com mandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII I Jesus masheth his disciples' feet, 14 and ex-horteth them to humility and charity.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

19 Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am ite.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you. That one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Fimon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom be spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it !

26 Jesus answered. He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And, when he had dipped the sop, he gave if to Judas Isearlot, the son of Simon. 27 And after the sop Satan entered into him.

Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. 23 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. 30 He then having received the sop, went immediately out : and it was night. 31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. 32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me; and, as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come:

so now I say to you. 34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that we are my disciples, if ye have leve one to another. 36 T Simes Peter said unto him, Ford, whither goest thou! Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou caust not follow me naw; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lerd, why cannot I follow thee now ! Lwill lan down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow till thou Mest denied me thrice.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a brauch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. 8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye hear abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

Il These things have I spoken unte you that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye leve

one another, as I have loved you

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are my friends, if ye de whatsoever

I command you. 15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth : but I have called you friends; for all things hated me before it hated you

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. therefore the world bateth you. 20 Remember the word that I said unto you,

The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not 22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no clock for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had in: but now have they both seen and bated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law,

They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

that ye should not be offended. 2 They shall put you out of the synagogues:

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me: 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? 6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth : It is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart I will send him unto you. 8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteounness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth, sen you, and ordained you, that ye should is come, he will guide you into all truth; go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit for he shall not speak of himself; but when soever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. 14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew if unto you.

15 All things that the Father bath are mine :

therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show if unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said, therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them. Do ye thee before the world was inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and we shall not see me: me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sor—ther row shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing:
Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatoover ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and

I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father

27 For the Father himself loveth you, hecause ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest theu plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him. 6 and to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the nour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee.

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. 4 I have glorified thee on the earth. I

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine and again, a little while, and we shall see they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of 8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou di latrend me.

9 I pray for them; I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am giorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name, those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, $ kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath bated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take themout of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hart sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sauctified through the truth. 29 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word.

24 That they all may be one: us theu, Fa-ther, orf in me, and E in thee, that they also that in me ye might have peace. In the world ther, art in me, and f in thee, that they also ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent mehave given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 1 in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

26 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. 26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVIII

1 Judas betrayeth Christ. Peter denieth him. 28 Jesus is arraigned before Pilate.

THEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterny and torches, aud weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am Ac. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am Ac, they went backward and fell to the ground.

7 Then neked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazafeth. 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am

10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew h . and smote the high priest's servant, and cut of his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it!

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Jesus, and bound bim,

13 And led him away to Annas first : (for he was father-in-law to Calaphas, which was the high priest that same year.)

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 T And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood at the door without.

Then went out that other disciple, which was that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

18 And the servants and officer stoofthere, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold, and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed him-elf.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered bim, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort: and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me! ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

23 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jerus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?
23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me ?

24 (Now Annas had sent him bound unto Cuiaphas the high pricet.)

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: they said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again; and immediately

the cock crew. 28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the ball of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judg ment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passever.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said.

What accusation bring ye against this man! 30 They answered and said unto him. If he were not a maicfactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death be should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgmenthall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him,

Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me ?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew! Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done? 26 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this he went out again knows unto the high priest, and spake unto her just the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

32 But ye have a custom, that I should to Pilate, release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest me unto thee bath the greater sin. 12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cerar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 And it was the preparation of the pass-over, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with Aim, away with Aim, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shail I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar 16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha;

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 T And Pilate wrote a title, and put if on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city : and it was written in Hebrew. and Greek, and Latin. 21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucitied Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part, and also his cost: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did car These things therefore the soldiers did

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bewed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore because it was the thee from above: therefore he that delivered preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high-day.) becought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw. that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. 35 And he that saw'il bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scrip-ture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 T And after this Joseph of Arimathea. (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews.) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

The ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

1 A repetition of part of Christ's history after his passian. 9 Of his accession.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, be-ing seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of

5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be haptized with the Holy Ghost not many days bence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom of Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the termost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up: and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This sawe Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaver, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in they went up into an upper room, where above both Peter, and James, and John. and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James 144 sea of Alpheur. and Simon Zelotes, and Judas, the brother of James

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem

Jews, devout men, out of every nation under

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled. aying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born ?

prophet Joel;

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days. (saith God,) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all desh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams :

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my

Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will show wonders in heaven above. and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and nonable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whoseever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you, by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death,: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hone: 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne: 21 He seeing this before, spake of the resur-rection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did sea corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exaited, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Chort, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the beavens : but he saith himself. The Loan said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make the focathy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel od held Peter and John, all the people ran 'b know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 T Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, What shall we do!

38 Then Peter said upto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

- and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. 41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.
- 42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done by the apost les.

44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common:

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of beart :

47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to sek alms of them that entered into the 12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. 13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. 18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghest, and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While it remained, was it not thine own?

and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? Why bast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias, hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Solrit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young mea came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

17 Then the high priest rose up and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indig-

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

this would grow. 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

turn away the deputy from the faith. 9 Then Saul. (who also is called Paul.) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness! wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord !

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist, and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the band. 12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony upto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the Dissension about circumcision: the apostles consult about it : their determination. 36 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part.

ND certain men which came down from A Judea taught the brothren, and said, Except ve be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them. they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared ail things that God had done with them.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea : who, coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonies, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

ND after the uproar was ceased, Paul Lalled unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts. and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months : and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Galus of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered to-

9 And there sat in a window a certain young san named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep aleap: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

. 10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing Aim, said, Trouble not your-selves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he deperted.

12 And they brought the young men alive. and were not a little comforted.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chies; and the next day we serived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons.

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might fluish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grare of God. 25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shupped to declare unto you all the coursel of God.

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he liath purchased with his ewa blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, peaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I cessed not to warn every one night and day with tears.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Paul will not be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 3 Philip's daughters prophetesses. 17 Paul at Jerusalem, 27 is apprehended, 31 but is rescued by the chief captain.

ND it came to pass, that after we were A gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. 3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and lamied at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days; who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed, and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore and prayed.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, (which was one of the seven,) and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days. there came down from Judea a certain prophet named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands, and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusa-

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the 21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee:

We have four men which have a vow on them: 24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at clearges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the flaw.

25. As touching the Gentiles which believe. we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idole. and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next another, we took ship; and they returned day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, belp: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further, hath brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place 29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Epherica, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee! Who said, Canst thou speak Greek !

38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said. I am a man which om a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beek oned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, CHAP. XXII.

MEN, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence : and he saith,

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I per-ecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high prices doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus. about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. 7 And I felt unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were straid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

1) And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto al! men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou! arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17. And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem : for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart : for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth, for it is not fit that be should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs. Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from Air bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

8 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharlsees, he eried out in the council. Men and brothren. I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee : of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dimension between the Pharisees and the Sadducces: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neitner angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that mere of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but, if a spirit or an auzel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension. the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring Abs into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said. Be of good cheer, Paul; for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under s curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto Aim, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he bath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to sesire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 Se the chief captain thee let the young man depart, and charged him, See then tell no man that thou hast showed these things to these things were so.

23 And he called unto him two centurions saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;
24 And provide them beauts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner: 26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, baving understood that he was a R sain.

28 And when I would have leawn the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have unthing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid want for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his ac cusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with bim, and returned to the castle;

33 Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also helore him.

34 And when the governor had read the 1-fter, he asked of what province he was, when he understood that he was of Cilicia,

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men.

17 Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude nor with tumult :

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid mone of his acquaintance to mi-

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against

Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cosar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the fews a plea-

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged : to the Jews have I done no wrong, as the very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synatogue, and compelled them to blambeme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick Asia: one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of The against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And is said. I am Jesus, whom thou persecutes:

HAP. XXVII.

1 Paul, shipping lowards Rome, 10 feretellch the danger of the voyage, 11 hut is not be-lieved. 41 They are shipperceked, 42, 42, 44 yet all come safe to land.

ND when it was determined that we A should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. saionica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and ave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days. and scarce were come over against Chidus, the of the ship, when they had let down the boat wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our 11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the southwest and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. 16 And running under a certain island which s called Clauda, we had much work to come 17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest law on taken away.

21 But after long 'abetinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said. Birs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo. God bath given thee all them that sall with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told

26 Howbelt, we must be cast upon a certain island

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country; 28 And sounded, and found if twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it lifteen fathoms 29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health : for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and wher he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into-the sea. 39 And when it was day they know not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. 40 And when they had taken up the anchors they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground: and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, ur, all hope that we should be saved was then kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land :

44 And the rest, some on hoards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land. CHAP. XXVIII.

Paul is entertained by the barbartans: 8 he healeth many in the island. 11 They all depart for Rome.

ND when they were escaped, then they . knew that the island was called Melita.

and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly : but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that be was a god. 7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publica; who received us, and lodged us three and when we departed, they laded as with such things as were necessary. 11 And after three mouths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whore sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium; and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to ceive; Puteoli;

we went toward Rome.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written,

The just shall live by faith.

21 Because that, when they knew God, they dorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made libe to corruptible man, and to hirds, and four-footed beasts, and ereeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to un-eleanness, through the lusts of their own bearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves.

against nature :

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not covenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, mali-clousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly: and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

22 Even the righteousness of God schick is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference: 23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

30 Seeing if is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. CHAP. IV.

1 Abraham's failh was imputed to him for righteousness: 24 and so shall ours. MAT shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, bath found ! 2 For if Abraham were justified by works. he hath whereof to glory, but not before God. 3 For what saith the scripture! Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness 4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteouspess.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. 9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteourness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision! Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circum cision, a seal of the righteeuspess of the faith which he had yet berig uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that for us righteousness might be imputed unto them also;

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the rightcoursess of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us they were:

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Barah's womb:

20 He stazzered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised he was able also to perform. 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed. If we believe on him that raised up Jesus car Lord from the dead;

25 ho was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by fallh, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam, 17 righteousness and life by Christ.

HEREPORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

18 Being then made free from siz, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteouspess.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everleating life.

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 For the woman which bath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then, if while her husband liveth she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ ; that ye should be married to another, even to should bring forth fruit nato God.

10 And the commandment, which was or-dained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin taking occasion by the com-mandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. 12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made deals unto me! God forbid. But sin, that it me!! appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual:

but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not : for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not. I coment unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is in my fiesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would. I do not : but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 New if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in use.
21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me. 22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man. 23 But I see another law in my mambers warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sis which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I see! who shall 1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ. Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his him who is raised from the dead, that we own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for ale condemned sin in the flesh;

4 That the righteousness of the law might! be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the feeb, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace: 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. 8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, livered him up for us all, how shall he not righteousness.

Il But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spinit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba,

6 Not as though the word of God bath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel :

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, they which are the children of the fiesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17, For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? 25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God. 27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel,

Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

23 For he will fluish the work and cut if short in rightenusness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esains said before, Except the Lord of sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith: 31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

5 For Moses describeth the righteoumess which is of the law, That the man which coets these things, shall live by them. 6 But the rightcourness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart. Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, who shall descend into the deep!

(that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead)

8 But what saith it? The word is met thee. even in thy mouth, and in thy heart : that is, the word of faith, which we preach:

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thire heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be raved.

10 For with the beart man believeth upto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Il For the scripture saith, Whosever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the mane of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him is whom they have not believed? and how My people, which were not my people; and not beard! and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they he sent? As it is written, How beautiful are he feet of them that preach the grapel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel: for Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? 17 So then faith cometh by bearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

grace. 6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace:

otherwise: work is no more work. 7 What then! Israel bath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election b...

parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; 24 Whensoever I take my journey into

Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For it bath pleased them of Macedonia and sachais to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem 27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure, that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me:

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the saints: 32 That I may some unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be re-

CHAP. I. exhorteth to unity, 12 and reproacheth their

DAUL called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theles and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lond Jesus Christ 4 I thank my God always ou your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and is all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: 8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom we were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 T Now I beseech you, brethren, by the same of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be me 1 After salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the discensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom same jud ment.

If for it hat been declared unto me of DAUL-called in be an apostle of Jesus Christ you, my brethren, by them maich are of the through the will of God, and Sosthenes our house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 ¶ Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apelles; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul erucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you.

but Crispus and Gains: 15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. 16 And I haptized also the housebould of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom or words. lest the cross of Christ should be made of none

18 ¶ For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written. I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise! Where is the world? 21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased

God by the foolinness of preaching to save to us of God them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom;

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Recause the feolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 But God bath ghosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God bath chosen the weak things of the world to comfound the things which are mighty; 28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in be preeousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit, we speak wisdom apong them that are perfect : yet not the wiscom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known 48, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God bath revealed them unto us by his Spirit : for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

Il For what man knoweth the things of a him shall God destroy: for the man, save the spirit of man which is in him! is holy, which temple ye are.

scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? even so the things of God knoweth no man, Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this but the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God : that we might know the things that are freely given 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are notishness unto him : neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him! But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Milk is fit for children 3 Against divisions. 16 Men the temples of God. 18 Against conceit.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat : for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who there is among you envying, and strife, and of God is made unto us wisdom, and right-divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as me !

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his

T is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole

T Purge out therefore the old leaven. that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice that we also might reign and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extertioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within!

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels?

t If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his ethren!

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? Why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither famicators, nor idolaters, nor micators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Northieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. 14 And God bath both raised up the Lord and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot! God forbid.

16 What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirk.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

TOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have ber own husband.

2 Do ye not know that the paints shall judge; 3 Let the limband reader unto the wife due the world? and if the world shall be judged benevolence; and likewise also the wife unto be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. 7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. 8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows. It is good for them if they abide even w i. 9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn 10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from Acr husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord; If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. 13 And the woman which bath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with ber, let ber not leave him. la For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanc-tified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace. 16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether, thou shalt save thy husband? or how know est thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy 17 But as God bath distributed to every man, as the Lord bath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all cumeised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayout be made free, use if rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Curist's servant:

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife! seek not a wife. 28 But and if theu marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren. The time & short: it remaineth, that both they that bave wives be as though they had none; 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they re-jeiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please

Air wife. 34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36. But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he signeth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well 38 So then be that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. 39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead. she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the 18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the such as is common to man: but God is faithful, gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I may gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might rain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

bread.

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

2 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman if the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his bend covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth or pro-phesieth with her head uncovered dishonouroth her head : for that is even all one as if she were shaven

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. 10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on Aer head because of the 11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions mong you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be nade manifest among you. 20 When ye come together therefore sto one place, this is not to est the Lord's 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till be come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guffly of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselfes, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when we come together to eat, tarry one for another. 34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemastion. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 Spirilual gifts are diserse, 7 yet all to profit milhal. 12 Christians, as the members of the body natural, are one.

TOW concerning spiritual gifts, bretheen, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accurred: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the mass Lord. 6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all is 7 T But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of bealing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discern-

Il But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 ¶ For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also tr Christ.

12 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not not of the body?

the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore fore not of the body ?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it there-

17 If the whole body were an eye, where mere the hearing? If the whole were bearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every then that which is in part shall be done one of them in the body, as it hath pleased

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body ! 20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee : nor again the head to the feet. I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: 23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant come-24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: 25 That there should be no schism in the body: but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be bonoured, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God bath set some in the church, first aposties, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers; after that miracles, then guits of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tengues.

29 Are all apostles! are all prophets! are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? 30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a moré excellent way. CHAP. XIII.

not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil: 6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth : 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things 6 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there ing with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? 7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a dis-tinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped ! 8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain wound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a harbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch se ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may inter-

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful rit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understands th not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all 19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five vords with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding : howbeit. In malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying servely not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church he come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that i ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when yo come together, every one of you bath a psalm, bath a doctrine, bath a tongue, hath a revelation. hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edifying. 27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that hy course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may loarn, and all may be comforted:

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection. 21 The fruit. 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the change of them that shall be alive then. TOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you. which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James: then of. all the apostles

8 And last of all he was seen of me also. as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

40 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grove which was bestoned upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11. Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached, that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so he that the dead rise act.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father: when he shall have put down all rule enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is deuth.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, all things are put under him. tt is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour 31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me. If the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die. 33 Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to-righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God; I speak shir to your shame.

35 ¶ But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come ? 36 Thos fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die: 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: 38 But God giveth it a body as it bath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another desh of beasts, another of fishes, and austher of birds.

40 There are also colestial bodies, and bodies terrestial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glary of the terrestial is

41 There is one glory of the sun, and anoanother. ther glory of the moon, and another glory of the sters: for one star differeth from another ention: an it is sown in dishonour; it is relead in Lord permit.

18 Then they also which are fallen taileep in glory : it is sown in weakness : it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a piritual body. There is a natural body, and spiritual body.

9 But now is Christ risen from the dead, there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that mus not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy : the second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: peither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

5k T Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, unto him, then shall the Son also himself bal at the last trump : for the trumpet shall sound, subject unto him that put all things under him, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shali be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this moral must put on immor tality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saving that is written. Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting! U grave, where is thy victory?

56. The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovemble, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord:

DUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then of the new testament; not of the letter, but of that maketh me glad, but the same which is the spirit; for the letter killeth, but the spirit made sorry by me?

3 And 1 wrote, this same unto you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice: having.confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any bave caused grief he hath not rieved me, but in part: that, I may not overcharge you all.

6 ¶ Sufficient to such a man is this punishment which was inflicted of many. 7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such an one should be swallowed up with over much sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love towards him

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for M I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it, in the person of Christ: 11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us:

for we are not ignorant of his devices 12 Furthermore, when I came to Tross to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Mace-14. T Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. CHAP. III.

A commendation of Paul's ministry. comparison between the ministers of the law and the gorpel.

Do we begin again to commend ourselves, or need we, as some others. commendation to you, or letters of commendetion from you?

2 Ye are our epietle written in our hearts, known and read of all men ;

3 Forgrand as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshiy tables of the beart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ te God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God: 6 Who also hath made us able ministers giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stone. was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of rightenusness exceed in glory. 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory, in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which put a vall over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: 14 But their minds were blinded : for until this day remainsth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. 15 Put even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. 17 Now the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty 18 But we all, with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. 11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also because we thus judge, that if one died for of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal all, then were all dead: fiesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in ▼nu.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, ac-1 cording as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak ;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the' thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day 17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory: 18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : for the things which are reen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, re-conciling the world unto himself, not inputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of recordliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ. as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, he ye reconciled to God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrenced

3 T I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia. our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within mere fears.

6 Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are east down, comforted us by the coming of Titus :

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejeiced the more.

8 For though Lmade you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. 9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing

4 Praying us with much entreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus ~ Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that'ye through his poverty might be rich.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jers' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of ber the poor; the same which I also was for-God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who scparated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that 1 might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him filteen days.

13 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia:

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ :

23 But they had heard only, That he which ersecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusaicm, and why. 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works.

HEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person; for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me :

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as ta: gospel of the circumcision mas unto Peter;

8 (For be that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentities .)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should rememward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to 12 For before that certain came from James. he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himselt, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; in omuch that Barnabas also, was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 $\Pi$ But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles.

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be iustified.

17 But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgresser. 19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 ¶ 1 am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Carist liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then the hearing of faith?

Christ is dead in vain.

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh ! 4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain ? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, ducts he it by the works of the law, or by the bearing of faith?

6 T Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is could justify the heathen through faith, Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is would justify the heathen through faith. preached before the gospel unto Abraham, blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the w are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, if is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but The men that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ bath redeemed us from the curse of the law being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree : 14 That the blessing of Abraham might some on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men ; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet ' it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this 1 say, That the covennet that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, # is no more of promise: but God rave if to Abratam by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made: and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one,

but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God! God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

3 But before faith came, we were kept under the law shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 Wherefore the lew was our schoolmaster to bring me unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been hapti-ged into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female : for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

the son of the freewoman. 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

4 Whereby when ye read ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ, 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; 6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: 7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. 8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; 9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the begin-ning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: 10 To the intent that now unto the princicalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, perform if until the day of Jesus Christ: 7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of 18 What then ! notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is presched; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.

rejoice with me. 19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of 200 ! confort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. 22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he bath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also-myself shall come shortly.

2) Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants

he had been sick.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when we see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me. CHAP. III.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness: 6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of so to ot yet of others, when we might have been surdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a norse cherisheth her children. 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. 9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how hofily and justly and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you, as father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk worthy of God who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God wnich ye heard of us, ye rereived it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all

15 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles hat they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. 18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy. CHAP. III.

1 Paul sendeth Timothy to them: 6 his joy for them, and desire to see them.

HEREFORE when we could no longer forbe,r, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone:

forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of its always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: 7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: 8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto

you. 12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:.

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

URTHERMORE, then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us bow ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

man, but God, who hath also gives unto us his holy Spirit. 9 But as touching brotherly love ye need them which are asleep. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

night. 3 For when they shall say, Peace and safe-ty; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with chikl; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. 5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. 7 For they that sleep, aleep in the night;

and they that be drunken; are drunken in the night. 8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober,

Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a failing away first, and that man of sin be re-

6 And now ye know what withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time. 7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work : only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. 8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

Christ.

you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brothren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we est any man's bread fer nought: but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you;

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. 1. 3 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul. 5 The end of the law. 12 Past's calling to be an apostle.

DAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; 2 Unto Timothy; my own son in the faith :

Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jusus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine

4 Neither give beed to fables and endies genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith; so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good con-science, and of faith unfeigned:

Turned saids unto vain jangling :

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law: understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawiess and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unboly and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manalayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine:

Il According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

mercy, because I did if ignorantly in unbelief 14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them lown house, how shall be take care of the church which should hereafter believe on him to life of God?) everiating.

glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; 3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filiby lucre; but patient; not a brawler, double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

Il Even so must their wives be grave, not alanderers, sober, faithful in all things. 12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own bouses well. 13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and praver.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophery, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things: give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

is Take heed unto thyself, and unto thy doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this theu shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Rules to be observed in reproving. REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethrep:

they will marry;

cast off their first faith. 13 And withal they learn to be idle, wanmarry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak repreachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after

Satan. 16 If any man or woman that-believe'b have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. 17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worring of double bonour, especially they who 15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16 But shun profane and vain babblings:

for they will increase unto more ungodliness. 17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, That the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. 21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. 22 Flee also youthful lusts : but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

manners spake in time past unto the fahelding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excelient name than they 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? 6 And again, when he bringeth in the first 10 And thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the hea-every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one : for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And arain, Rehold, I and the children which God bath given me.

14 Fora-much then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage, 16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore in all things it behaved him to be made like unto his brethren, that be might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For, in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

I Christ is more worthy than Moses: 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jeaus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful ir all his bouse. 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more bonour than the

we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end:

15 While it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? Was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness! 18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that be-of you should seem to come short of it. 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them : but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world 4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. 5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword. piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the beart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight : but all things are maked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in de-parting from the living God.

15 For we have not on the form the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it cannot be touched with the feeling of our inis called To-day; lest any of you be harcened firmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melch isedec.

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth berbs meet for them by whom it is dressed,

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be hurned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany saipart of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of descept, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God;

abideth a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man mas, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their bruthren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises. 7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he received them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who re-ceiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his fa-ther, when Melchisedec met him. 11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need mas there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron ?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For he of whom these things are spoken

15 And for this cause he is the mediater of the new testament, that by means of death. 10 For this is the covenant that I will make for the redemption of the transgressions that with the house of Israel after those days, saith were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal 16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood. 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hy-son, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testa-

OR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the bings, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the corners thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrame again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared judge his people.

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will,

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offer-ing and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law:

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins :

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. 15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, 16 This is the covenant that I will make 17 And their sins and iniquities will I remem-

I An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset we, and let us run with patience the race that is set before

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the Israel; and gave commandment concerning shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be For if they escaped not who refused him that wearled and faint in your minds.

- which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: 6 For whom the Lord loveth he charteneth.

 7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sone; for what son is he whom the (ather chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chartisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bustards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our Sesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live !

10 For they verily for a few days chasten ed as after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his ho-liness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the pesceable fruit of right-coursess unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees ;

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the fight, we have fellowship one with another: and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. 11.

1 Comfort against sine of infirmity. 3 To know God is to keep his commandments. To beware of seducers; 20 from whose de-ecits the godly are safely preserved by faith and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man ain, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins : and ant for ours only, but also for the sins of the wbole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, f we keep his commandments.

4 He that snith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth in not in him.

5 But whose keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him

6 He that mith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which we ginning.

• Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you;

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth lis brother, is in derkoess even until now.

10 He that leveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

It But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written upto you, fathers, because re have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in t. world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the fiesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God

abideth for ever 16 Little children, it is the last time: and as re have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy

One, and ye know all things.
21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same bath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye bave heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath pro-mised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written anto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing, which ye have reselved of him, shideth in you, and ye need not had from the beginning: the old commandment that any man, teach you: but as the same is the word minich ye have heard from the be- anointing teacheth, you of all things, and in truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons; 3 mho therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, il as also brotherly to love one another.

DEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the some of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him pot.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is

3 And every man that bath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the luw.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in hlm sinneth not: whosever sinneth bath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth rightcousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil

9 Whosoever is born of God doth ant commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 Itr this the children of God are m: of est, and the children of the devil: whosoever weth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that leveth not his brother.

Il For this is the message that we heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Hecause his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whospever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer bath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whose bath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God : Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ve have heard that it should come: and even the already is it in the world.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love. 9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-beret-ten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, not that we loved God. but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

If Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

Christ, is born of God, and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that la begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. 8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God bath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God bath made him a liar; because he believed not the record that God gave of his Son.

CHAP. XIV. I The Lamb standeth on mount Sion with his company. 6 An angel preachelt the gaspel. 8 The full of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sickle. 20 The winlage and nine-press of the wrath of God.

ND I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the A mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their forcheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder; and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps :

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are gave power unto the beast : and they worship they which follow the Lemb whithersoever be pel the beast, saying, Who is like unto the goeth. These were redeemed from among they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he men, being the first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the easth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and mive glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come; and worship him that made beaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city,

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints : here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat, like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the hervest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth : for ber grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast if into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

I The seven angels with the seven last lagues. 3 The song of them that overcame the beast, &c.

A ND I saw another sign in heaven, great cause of their pains and their sores, and reason marrellous, seven angels having the pented not of their deeds.

for they are without fault before the throne of seven last plagues: for in them is filled a

the wrath of God

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glaw --and over his mark, and over the sum'. his name, stand on the sea of glass, knymit in harps of God.

CHAP. XVI.

I The angels pour out their vials full of wrath: 2 the plagues that follow thereupon. 15

Christ cometh as a thief.

A NO 1 heard a great voice out of the tem-ple, saying to the seven angels, Go year ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poused out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his visi upon the sen; and it became as the blood of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his visit upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou has udged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of mints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the alter say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his visit upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat.

and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repeated not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnowed their tongues for pain,

Chap. xvii, xvlii.

12 And the sixth ,angel poured out his vial upon the great river Duphrates : and the water didst thou marvel ! I will tell thee the myster t hereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty:

15 Behold I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk maked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh augel poured out his vial into the air: and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying. It is done.

13 And there were voices, and thunders. and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the Serceness of his wrath.

20 And every island 3ed away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men biasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

3, 4 A moman arrayed in purple and scarlet with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, b mhich is great Babulon, the mother of all abominations. 7 The interpretation of the seven heads. 12 and the ten horns. 14 The victory of the Lamb. 18

The punishment of the whore.

ND there came one of the seven angels A which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me. Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitars of the earth here been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the mairit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, baving seven heads and ten borns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and searlet colour, and eacked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of shominations and fithiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead mas a name written. MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND A-BOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the dered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horas.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and co into perdition: and they that dwell en the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings : five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as vet ; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings : and they that are, with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat ber flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the heast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, a fallen, and is become the habitation of devilaand the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kines of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed zich through the abundance of her delicacies. 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye recelve not of her plagues.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall beward her, and lament for ber, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, 10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more :

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and slik, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of fvory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankhicense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and borses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come. were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood sfar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and eried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God bath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians. and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a milistone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries vere all nations deceived.

white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew but be himself.

thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND
